STATE CLAIMS EASTMAN HAMBURG LINER PLOTTED TO KILL GROGAN.

volver cannot be true.

'One of the State's witnesses will testify that Grogan, dying, said: 'Eastman has murdered me, and he did it

When found Grogan's white handled revolver had five empty shells in it and the Eastman black handled revolver had five empty shells in it. The old-fash-ioned revolver had two empty shells in it. The other chambers were empty. "The weapon carried by the instructor to the house had one loaded cartridge in it. It was the only firearm with a loaded cartridge in it at the time.

"The bullet that energy Grogan's body was a builet from a 22-culture revolver. The problem for you to determine is whether it came from the old rim-fire revolvers.

volver. The problem for you to determine is whether it came from the old fimilities whether it came from the old fimilities whether it came from the old fimilities. The bullet in Gragan's body corresponds exactly in all these particulars with the centre-fire bullets and in only one of the points mentioned with the rim-fire bullets. Another point is that it is impossible to load a centre-fire bullet in either shell of the old revolver so as to be fired from it. The bullet is larger in diameter than the interior diameter of the shells.

"We shall establish the proposition that the defendant's averment of accidental shooting camps be true and that the shooting must have been done with a contre-fire revolver.

"The Commonwealth holds that whatever show of friendship there may have been, there was on the part of Easiman toward Grogan An undercurrent of hostility; that he himself said they had nothing in common; that they did not walk in the same social place. And there will be evidence to show that verylous to July 4 the defendant had formed a purpose to kill Grogan."

The practice of handcuffing men accused of a capital offense when they are taken from place to place, is one which is almost invariably observed here. Sheriff Fairburn, however, has made an exception in the case of Eastman. The defendant enters the dock and leaves it without other restraint tran is implied by the presence of the two deputy cheriffs.

"No law exists." the Sheriff says.

Carried Away by Two Crowd at Grand Street Went Scurrying in Alarm.

> Cries of "Mad dog" at Grand street and Broadway this morning resulted in panie among pedestrians, a lively chase down Grand street, a suspension of street car traffic and the death of the dog at the hands of a policeman. When the dog first appeared there was othing about the undersized animal to excite attention. At length, however, h. vas observed to ruise his eyes reproachfully toward the clouds. Then, leaping into the street, he began to rur tround in a circle

Suddenly a small boy yelled, "Mad log!" and in a few moments scores of persons were acurrying into doorways. The dog ran east along Grand street losely pursued by a policeman. As they approached Crosby street the animal ran nto a ventilating funnel, where his pursuer opened fire.

The ball grazed the animal's head and he beast once more ran into the street It leaped into an empty dry-goods box. Five shots were fired before the dog was Traffic on Grand street was interrupted for twenty minutes.
